

M&A FORUM SINGAPORE

SPEAKER BIOS

LEE SHAO PING is the Head of M&A Southeast Asia and Managing Director of Daiwa Capital Markets Singapore. He joined Daiwa Securities SMBC Strategic Advisory Team in Tokyo in early 2006.

Shao Ping has extensive experience in advising cross-border M&A deals in Japan, Southeast Asia and China. He has advised and completed numerous cross-border transactions, both public and private. Shao Ping received an accelerated Master of Engineering (Physical Electronics) degree from Tokyo Institute of Technology, and an MBA from the University of Chicago, Booth School of Business with honors (Beta Gamma Sigma). He is proficient in English, Chinese & Japanese.

RODYK & DAVIDSON LLP

S. SIVANESAN is a Partner in Rodyk & Davidson LLP's Corporate Practice Group.

Sivanesan's primary areas of practice include mergers and acquisition, corporate reorganisations and restructurings, venture capital and investment funds and corporate finance. He has advised several fund managers, venture capital funds, start-ups and companies on investment deals. He has extensive experience in joint ventures and international transactions. He has advised on local as well as cross border joint ventures (JVs), from the establishment to the termination of JVs. Sivanesan's international work includes cross-border transactions, mergers and acquisitions and investment deals in South East Asia, India, China, Europe, Australia and USA. He has advised local and foreign clients on establishing businesses in Singapore and the region, foreign direct investment, liaising with regional counsel and establishing effective corporate structures for regional operations. He is widely regarded as an authority on corporate governance and venture capital.

M&A FORUM SINGAPORE

SPEAKER BIOS

GOH BUN HIONG currently heads the tax advisory practice of PKF. Starting with the tax division of Arthur Andersen, he has over 20 years' of tax consulting experience, specializing in international taxation, tax risk management, dispute resolution, investment and cross border planning. He is an accredited tax advisor (Income Tax & GST) with SIATP as well as a member of the International Fiscal Association. In addition to sitting on feedback panels of IRAS and the Ministry of Finance, Bun Hiong is also an active speaker at various seminars and on the radio station. Prior to joining PKF, Bun Hiong was the head of the Asia Pacific Tax department of a major multinational group.

LEE ENG KIAN is currently a practicing public accountant with PKF-CAP LLP and a Chartered Accountant of Singapore. He has 20 years of experience in the accounting industry dealing with assurance, and various M&A activities such as financial due diligence, business valuation and initial public offerings. Eng Kian was previously with Arthur Andersen and Ernst and Young, two of the world's largest accounting and advisory networks since his graduation with Nanyang Technological University with an honors degree in Bachelor of Accountancy in 1995. He co-founded PKF-CAP LLP in 2007. He is an active member of various quality control and technical committees under the Institute of Singapore Chartered Accountants such as the Financial Statements Review Committee, Audit & Assurance Standards Committee, and Financial Reporting Committee. In addition, he is also in the PKF Asia Pacific Practice Standards Committee.

Chartered Accountants
& Business Advisers

M&A FORUM SINGAPORE

SPEAKER BIOS

ROCH TAY is a Principal and an M&A Consultant with the ASEAN M&A team based in Singapore.

Roch has led several cross-border HR due diligence projects and advised multi-national companies on their compensation and benefits harmonisation plans, communication strategy and integration plans.

He joined Mercer after serving as a Senior Manager in the Transaction Services business of one of the Big Four professional accounting firm in Singapore. Prior to this, he was a Transaction Services Manager with another professional accounting firm in London. Roch has extensive experience in corporate transaction advisory and financial due diligence. He has advised corporate clients on both in- and out- bound transactions and on both “buy” and “sell” side of the transactions. Roch was the lead project manager for numerous large-scale transactions projects both in the Asian and European markets.

Dhruv Mehra is a Principal and Global M&A Consultant team based in Singapore. He has over 12 years of consulting experience focused on human capital issues and has worked on a broad range of assignments including cross-border M&A due diligence, post-merger integration and project management.

Dhruv has advised US and Asian multinational clients on various types of transactions including acquisitions, divestitures and joint-ventures. He has worked on over a hundred transactions and worked extensively with both strategic and financial buyers conducting transactions in the financial services, insurance, retail, auto, healthcare, media, IT/telecommunication and pharmaceutical industries. His key areas of expertise within the human capital consulting space include executive rewards, talent retention, due diligence and harmonization of employee compensation and benefits, workforce integration and cultural integration.